3 COOL THINGS TO DO AFTER YOUR ENGLISH CLASS

1. Walk south along the waterfront to the top end of Battery Park and continue walking along the waterfront until you reach the southern end. Catch the Staten Island ferry (it's free!) from the Whitehall terminal (next to Battery Park). Once you arrive in Staten Island, 30 mins later, walk back around and take the return ferry. The ferry ride is great for views of New York and the Statue of Liberty.
2. Head eastwards into Tribeca and explore the cobble streets and large lofts of this uber trendy Manhattan neighborhood. There are also lots of great lunch spots here. Continue walking south along West Broadway until you reach the 911 Memorial site. Spend some time wandering around the reflecting remembrance pools. End your day by visiting the Observatory at No 1 World Trade center.
3. Walk eastwards until you reach Hudson St, then head north until you reach the West Village. Spend an hour or 2 wandering the lovely streets of this neighborhood. Enjoy a cupcake from the famous Magnolia's bakery, before walking the short distance to hang out for the rest of the afternoon in Washington Square Park.
